

THE SUPREME COURT of OHIO

Paul E. Pfeifer

Senior Associate Justice

Justice Paul E. Pfeifer grew up on his family's dairy farm near Bucyrus. He still resides just down the road. As a teenager, he raised purebred Yorkshire hogs to finance his college education. Those years taught him the value of hard work, determination and clean overalls.

Justice Pfeifer's first job after graduating from OSU's law school was as an assistant attorney general trying eminent-domain cases associated with the building of Ohio's highway system. Traveling the state gave him an appreciation for Ohio's county courthouses, architectural jewels that are the crossroads of life in our towns and cities. He always tries to keep in mind how the Supreme Court's decisions might affect the people seeking justice in county courthouses every day.

In 1972, he became a partner in the law firm of Cory, Brown & Pfeifer, where he practiced – primarily as a trial and tax lawyer – for 20 years. He also served several years as an assistant county prosecutor.

Justice Pfeifer served in both houses of the Ohio General Assembly, including one term in the House of Representatives and four terms in the Senate. He held a variety of leadership posts in the Senate, and served as chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee for 10 years. His proudest legislative accomplishment was crafting the legislation creating the Ohio Tuition Trust Authority.

Justice Pfeifer was first elected to the Supreme Court in 1992. For him, the most inspiring thing about the Court is that every voice gets heard, from that of the widow fighting for her husband's workers' compensation benefits, to those of corporations battling over tens of millions of dollars.

He began his fourth Supreme Court term in January 2011. At Justice Pfeifer's side was his wife, Julie, whom he first met when their steers were tied across from each other at the Crawford County Fair "more years ago than it would be polite to mention." Together, they have two daughters, Lisa and Beth, a son, Kurt, four granddaughters and one grandson.

Because of his career in state government, Justice Pfeifer has one foot in the capital city, but the other always remained firmly planted in his hometown, where he has his own farm now. He raises Black Angus cattle, and enjoys the time spent outdoors doing chores. He says there is clarity to life in the country, where there is no pomp and circumstance, just the green fields of Crawford County, a gaggle of grandkids who call him "Papa" and a herd of Angus that know him as the guy with the hay.

Jan. 2, 1993 - Paul E. Pfeifer became the 146th Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. His current terms ends on Jan. 1, 2017.

COURTROOM CAREER

The Supreme Court of Ohio, Associate Justice, elected 1992, 1998, 2004, 2010

Cory, Brown & Pfeifer, Partner, 1973-1992

Crawford County Prosecuting Attorney's office, Assistant Crawford County Prosecuting Attorney, 1973-1976

Ohio Attorney General William B. Saxbe's office, Assistant Ohio Attorney General, 1967-1970

LEGISLATIVE CAREER

The Ohio Senate (26th District, elected 1976, 1980, 1984, 1988)

Assistant President Pro-Tempore, 1985-1986

Minority Floor Leader, 1983-1984

Ten years as Senate Judiciary Committee Chairman

The Ohio House of Representatives (15th District, elected 1970)

Judiciary Committee member

State Government Committee member

BUSINESS INTERESTS

Raises Angus cattle on his Crawford County farm

EDUCATION

Juris Doctor, The Ohio State University, 1966

Bachelor of Arts, Economics, Political Science and History, The Ohio State University, 1963

PERSONAL

Born in 1942 in Bucyrus, Ohio

Wife, Julia; three children; five grandchildren

Member, Grace United Methodist Church, Bucyrus, Ohio